OFFICER REPORTS

Joe Rains, President--President Rains reported that 230 people have signed up for the rally in Frankfort concerning Higher Education Budget Cuts. He emphasized the importance of much participation in the rally on October 14. Everyone is encouraged to attend and to recruit people for the rally. A letter was read from Dr. Haynes that was written to faculty members concerning excusing students who attend the rally. Another letter from Dr. Haynes was read concerning 92-01-F and 92-02-F; they are on their way to seek Academic Council approval.

Susan Mitchell, Administrative Vice-President--Administrative Vice-President Mitchell reported that her next big project is Homecoming Elections which will be October 20 from 9:30-4:00.

Patrick Monohan, Public Relations Vice President--Public Relations Vice-President Monohan reported that a newsletter will be started after the rally. He will be taking nominations for committee member of the month. Everyone needs to put their nominations in his box. The Bowling Green 10K needs a lot of volunteers this year. We are trying to get phones to call people who signed up for the rally next week so they will know the agenda for the day.
